Goff made over fifty votes here to-day by his bold manly and eloquent speech. He will carry Parkersburg by 100 majority and Wood county by 200 majority. Mark the prediction when the reports come up next Tuesday night. reports come up next Tuesday night. Neparlon,

To Voters in Marshall County. MARSHALL COUNTY, October 12.

We are now called upon to exercise the dearest right of American citizens, that of depositing our ballots for the can-didates of our choics, and thus select men to represent us in both houses of our State Legislature and also (in reality) men to represent us in both nouses of our National Legislature, I wish to present a few ideas as to what should govern us in the selection of these men.

AN APPEAL TO INTELLIGENT MEN.

I would especially direct these thoughts the voters of Marshall county, though bey are applicable to all alike in West Virginia. I speak not as a politician, but as a man, and I would only appeal to the men. We all recollect how the Democpower four years ago. was a surprise even to themselves. Many prominent men of the party publicly expressed this feeling after the election. The cry of "refrenchment and reform" did the work. Perhaps it really was costing too much at that time to run the government of our State. Perhaps the government of our State. Fernapa the Republican party had become somewhat corrupt, as all parties do, to a more or less extent, after being retained in power for some time. Let us grant all of this. Have the Democrats kept one pledge that they then made? I make the assertion without fear of successful contradiction that they have grossly violated EVERY PLEDGE THAT THEY THEN MADE. It is apparent that these pledges were made only for the purpose of getting into power. This is shown from the fact that they repudiated the honest man they had chosen for Governor, who was no doubt elected when they into the moment of the contrast nominated to lead a forlorn hope—but being unexpectedly (to them) elected, and refusing to do their corrupt bidding, and to uphold the ringmasters in their peculations and unwise legislation, they one pledge that they then made? I

But the people arose in their might and kept him in power. But the people now see to their sorrow that they did not do enough. What they did for Governor Jacob they should have done for all the rest of the anti-ring candidates, and we believe they would have done so had their designs been as apparent as they are now. Let us then show by our votes at this election that we can rise above party find party prejudice and be men—men in that noble sense of the word which will cause us to do right for the which will cause us to do right for the sake of the right. If the Republican party presents men for your suffrages, the election of whom you think will be conducive to the good of our State, then vote for them; let your party polities be what they may. It, on the contrary, you think that the men presented by the democracy are the best, if you can still trust that party to whose unjust and unwise legislation is attributable all our woes, then vote for them. If God be God then serve him; if Bast, then serve him. But we would urge all of you to consider well, and be sure that your votes go for the best men. How are wete judge of the men? Look at their past record. Those that have been our public servants before.

He voted in layor of the appropriation to our Normal Schools and against the $10,000 Christmas spree. Judge ye which one of the two to trust. Neither Turnern nor Shrodes have been tried as Legislators; but all candid, right thinking men can easily decide between them.
